Dear Debra

I called on Sarah Anne and found her at home she was just the same as ever except he was a little sobered down she had no news to impart except, Mr Milbrett took leave of them about midnight and was gone to Florida for his health, she had more news to tell I guess for she called about 12 o'clock - I got the picture from Doughty's this afternoon It looks better than it did there either from being apart from the rest or having the light fall ~~on~~ it different - Mr Chapman and Maria have gone down to Charming Place to tea and spend the evening - This afternoon Dr Tarnsworth called to take letters to Boston But they had gone by the stage - He was soon to the Slavery Meeting - The Annals went through again and every thing to go. If you write direct your letters to Boston I have bled my arm since you were gone - Maria did it in a guess sort of a manner I think it straightens some. I am going to Cambridge to morrow afternoon if nothing happens to prevent give my respects to Granting folk and tell Aunt Mary I shall write to her from Cambridge. give my respects and tell him to Let me know how many hundred barrels of Mackerels he has caught Yours truly
